Reports

11. City Manager reports

Construction on the PD remodel continues. We are still waiting to hear from a structural engineer on shoring up the ceiling and trusses and associated costs.

We will begin initial coordination meetings in the next few weeks for the NW 14th Street reconstruction project. We anticipate beginning construction in the Spring of 2023.

Several staff members attended the emergency management tabletop exercise sponsored by Dickinson County Emergency Management last week. It was a good introduction to start the process of preparing for disaster response. There will be a follow up 2 ½ day functional exercise April 11-13, 2022.

We have received final approval from the Kansas Department of Health and Environment to begin drilling and construction of well #23.

Reminder the City Christmas Party will be December 11th at the Elks.

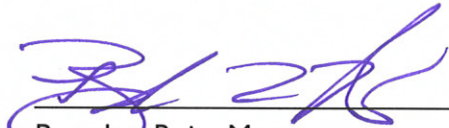

There will be no meeting next week as it is the fifth Monday of the month.
